At UrbanJourney we're all about finding the hottest new happenings around town, especially when it comes to good eats. This month we've uncovered a ton of new Singapore restaurants, cafes and bars that are definitely worth putting on your must-visit list. From chic coffee houses to speakeasy-style steakhouses, healthy vegan eats and indulgent Middle Eastern cuisine, these

Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar

East Coasters you're going to love this one, especially if you've already tried and fallen in love with Pince & Pints' out-of-this-world lobster at their original location on Duxton. The new branch is set to open on October 16th with the same great menu featuring lobster flown in from Maine every week and prepared in a variety of ways like straight-up grilled or steamed with butter, in a Lobster Burger served with housemade sauces and sweet potato fries, or in their decadent Lobster Mac n' Cheese.

PS.Cafe at One Fullerton

No matter which branch of PS.Cafe you visit you're pretty much guaranteed a good ambiance, which is what we love about this chain, so we expected nothing less from their new space at One
