Pince & Pints

Lobster roll, $48

Packed between a tall, spongy bun baked to Pince & Pints' specs by an uncle in People's Park Complex is a full lobster (pincers included) of crunchy meat. The incredibly fresh lobster chunks, coated in a light mayo and topped with chives pair beautifully with the butter-seared inners of its sweeter-than-usual roll. Yes, the price may be prickly, but consider that the lobsters are flown in twice weekly, and bussed daily to the restaurant from their warehouse resting place – a rare indulgence, perhaps, but unlikely to disappoint.

32-33 Duxton Rd. 6225 7558, website. Mon-Sat 5-11pm.
