FUN DAY OUT

DREAM TENT SALE

Sep 6 and 7, 11am to 7pm

If you're looking to dress up your home with iconic designer furnishings from Dream, drop by this outdoor bazaar that resembles a New York Smorgasbord. Besides home decor items and quirky curios, this event also promises a tantalising array of eats and sweets from The Traveling C.O.W and Island Creamery, and lifestyle goods from The General Company.

456 River Valley Road.

KEEPERS: DESIGNER SINGAPORE COLLECTIVE

Sep 12 to Feb 15, 2015, 11am to 10pm

With an aim to spread the appreciation for the creative and development process, this five-month-long pop-up store showcases the works of over 50 hand-picked local designers and artisans, ranging from fashion, furniture and architecture design. Expect a diverse line-up of events including workshops, food events, and monthly visual installations.

Orchard Green, opposite Robinsons Orchard.

NOW HEAR THIS

AUDIO TECHNICA SONICFUEL ATH-AXIS

Packing style and convenience into one, it features huge 40mm drivers for top-notch sound, and long-term comfort and wearability with its cushioned ear pads and headband. The volume and music control – and even the answering of calls – are at the touch of a single button, plus, you can easily fold it flat and tuck it into the carrying case.

JABRA STEP WIRELESS

Sick of having your earphones yanked out from accidental tugs? We know we are. These smart-fit angled earbuds boasts soft over-the-ear gelhooks and noise-isolating abilities to keep your music in place. It sits snugly in the ear cavity, is dust- and water-resistant, and comes with in-line controls for your music and calls. Perfect for life on the move.

$108, available at Apple premium resellers, Challenger, Harvey Norman, and authorised Jabra resellers.

SWEET TREATS

Good party music and free-flow drinks are two of the best things to look forward to every mid-week, but Attica is upping the ante with its new Eat Me, Drink Me Bar. Happening every Wednesday, Guilty Pleasures treats the fairer gender to a host of sugary goodness – from Oreo Cookie shots and Jagermeister ice cream to a chocolate fountain with vodka- and champagne-soaked strawberries. Dress to impress and you and four gal-pals might stand to win a giant martini, or score some shots on the roving 'Russian Roulette' board.

Guilty Pleasures happens every Wednesday at Attica. Admission at $20 for gents, while ladies enjoy free entry, drinks and treats from 10.30pm to midnight.

GOOD EATS

Three new restos that are whetting our appetites.

PINCE & PINTS

This eatery makes the decadent lobster easily accessible at reasonable prices. Having been housed in a stress-free environment until it hits pan, the lobster meat is sweet, succulent and offers a nice chewy bite. We have to add that it's served in generous portions too. Try the quintessential Lobster Roll ($48), which boasts a buttery crisp bun and juicy chunks of meat; and the Chili Lobster with Mantou ($48), drenched in a tangy sweet chili sauce.

32/33 Duxton Road, tel: 6225-7558.

SEASONS BISTRO

From fresh, sustainable seafood to Mexican-style dishes, Seasons takes us on a culinary adventure showcasing the American cuisine. Favourites include the Poutine ($10), a comforting bowl of cheese curds and beef gravy slathered over thick-cut fries; Surf & Turf Gumbo ($29), rice drenched inokra tomato stew mixed with chicken, shrimp and sausage; and the Mojito Tart ($12), a heavenly treat of rum cream and mint lime curd tucked prettily in a toasted coconut crust.

#01-11/12 Triple One Somerset, tel: 6836-5841.

MOOSEHEAD KITCHEN BAR

With an eclectic array of recycled furniture, and hip indie music playing, this is one alternative space for the foodie with edge. Its menu features grub inspired by the owners' travels, as well as a wide range of exotic craft beers. A must-try however, is the Cnsy Spiced Pig Ears ($16), a crunchy curry-like snack that is tender on the inside and goes best with ice-cold beer. We also liked the Chili Pineapple Popwicle ($14), a refreshing treat topped with frozen gula melaka foam, banana custard, and dark chocolate bits.

110 Telok Ayer Street, tel: 6636-8055.
