btlifestyle Coming to a table near you, Pince and Pint's Truffle Lobster Roll. Unlike its Signature Lobster Roll where the lobster meat is served cold, the Truffle Lobster Roll is served hot so diners can now enjoy the lobster rolls in two different styles.

First, the lobster is blanched and then soaked in iced water. Next, it is seared in butter and housemade truffle sauce and generously stuffed into the bun.

Lastly, the lobster roll is topped off with truffle caviar and served with a new housemade truffle sauce and the usual side of fries and salad
