Christmas in 2 weeks time and followed by Chinese New Year! Time flies! Restaurants are ready for the festive celebration!

Pince & Pints has recreated the traditional Yusheng, by adding chunks of fresh steamed whole live lobster and their own homemade sauce to complete this celebration must-have. Lobsters, are otherwise known as "the dragon of the sea" which is a symbol of strength and good fortune for the coming year ahead.

Apart from lobster, the Yusheng includes Salmon sashimi, strips of carrots, preserved cucumber, preserved melon, preserved lime, red sweetened ginger, tangy pomelo sprinkled with cinnamon powder, pepper and finished off with ground peanuts, sesame, lemon and pok choy (crispy golden pillows) tossed in home made sweet plum sauce.

Each set will be going at $88+ (only GST, no service charge).

The Lobster Yusheng will only be available for takeaways only via pre-order from 4th January to 24th January 2016. Collection dates will be from 3rd February to 6th February 2016- 5pm onwards on weekdays and 12pm - 11pm on Saturdays.
