charmainephua It's not entirely visible in this photo, but there's the meat from one whole lobster (between 600g-650g) crammed within that super soft bun. The lobster is fresh (not frozen), lovingly blanched, bathed in ice, then gently seared with butter and truffle sauce, before they squeeze it into the bun and top it off with truffle shavings & truffle caviar. And if that's not truffle-y enough for you, it's served with house salad, a side of fries and their housemade truffle sauce. Truffle heaven. 😊

This is the new Truffle Lobster Roll ($68++) on the @pinceandpints menu, and is a must-try, especially if you love fresh lobster, truffle, and spoiling yourself. ;) #charmfeeds #pinceandpints
