xiaxue First time I ate at @pinceandpints I fell in love with their lobster roll... So much fresh (never frozen!! not like most of the other lobster roll restaurants wtf) lobster stuffed into one buttery, melty roll... Now they somehow managed to make it EVEN BETTER.

Introducing the super delicious Truffle Lobster Roll! It comes with slices of truffle and caviar, and it's served warm.

There is so much lobster in there that you cannot eat this without some falling out.

Thank you for the media tasting... The husband and I both agreed that it was really really really delicious! You guys HAVE to try it. Oh and it comes with a scrumptious truffle butter sauce that you can dip your fries into.
