One of the best Mac and Cheese I've had, and this one has lobster in it too! Cheesy, gooey and moist, it remained so even after our lengthy photo taking.

Pince and Pints only serves fresh (not frozen) lobster hence the premium price of $58 for a lobster roll. If that's too steep for you, I would really recommend this mac and cheese $28 where you can still enjoy some lobster in a very comforting dish.

Pince and Pints will be opening its 2nd outlet in Katong opposite I12 Katong Mall.

One of the best lobster rolls I have ever eaten, not that I've eaten all that many. But some times, you can just tell. Lusciously sweet and fresh (not frozen) lobster enveloped in a buttery and fluffy bun. This version comes with truffle for the extra oomph. $68

Check out their new outlet opposite I12 Katong Mall. Love the dark blue and white walls.
