

Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar Opens Third Outlet in Katong, Singapore

Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar opens its third outlet in Singapore, bringing to the lively Katong neighbourhood the restaurant's signature fresh, quality lobsters at incomparable prices. Since its first establishment along the bustling streets of Duxton Road in 2014, owner, Frederick Yap has experienced great success as the industry leader of "cook it your way" lobster restaurants. This success led to the homegrown specialist seafood brand's first overseas expansion into Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia within its first year into business. With generous and enticing portions of lobsters incomparably priced for its freshness and quality, lobster feasting is always an epicurean experience of great value at Pince & Pints.

Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar takes pride in serving the finest live lobsters. Wild caught lobsters are air-flown direct weekly from the Atlantic Coast and stored in Pince & Pints's very own cutting edge deep sea tanks. A curated range of beverages and impeccable service complement the superstars on its menu: The Lobster Roll, light and crispy rolls stuffed with hearty chunks of sweet lobster and seasoned with a house speciality mix of condiments, and the inimitable Live Whole Lobster, served with choice of either grilled or steamed versions and accompanied with sides of chef's salad, straight cut fries and butter sauce. With a casual and unpretentious atmosphere reminiscent of a traditional lobster shack in Maine and an unmistakable take on New York's sophisticated compact quarters, Pince & Pints sets itself apart as a congenial gathering place to chill over drinks and good food!

Due to open 16th October 2017, the 60-seater restaurant is nestled along the charming, heritage-rich streets of Katong. Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar Katong brings with its grand opening two new additions to its communal-friendly menu. Chomp on a different take of everyone's favourite meat-and-patty combination, The Lobster Burger with its juicy, lip-smacking lobster patty in the middle. Or slurp away on a dish closer to the local's palate, The Lobster Noodles.

The Lobster Burger

Fresh lobster meat seasoned and breaded with various spices, the patty is deep fried slowly to perfection, maintaining every drop of moisture and juiciness before being enveloped in a fluffy potato bun. This hearty flavor-packed burger is accompanied with crispy sweet potato fries, coleslaw and three different house-made dipping sauces.

The Lobster Burger is priced at $42++.

The Lobster Noodles

Egg noodles topped with generous chunks of shell-on whole fresh lobster, stir-fried with ginger and scallions in superior broth. Served with house-made sambal chili for that extra spicy kick and “shio-ness”, this new addition will be a decadent twist to the much-loved Singaporean comfort food.

The Lobster Noodles are priced at $58++

About Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar

Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar, the quintessential lobster bar at Duxton, was founded in Singapore and first opened its doors on 7 July 2014. Serving classic and contemporary lobster dishes, reminiscent of New England's cuisine, restaurant owner and founder, Frederick Yap, followed his palate and belly, after enjoying delicious and affordably priced quality lobsters around the world, to set up Pince & Pints Restaurant and Bar. With unpretentious New York style décor and a casual atmosphere, Pince & Pints is the place for fresh, succulent, and choice lobsters at accessible prices. Handled at their in-house state-of-the-art tank facility, the lobsters are also readily available to supply to other leading restaurants, hotels and F&B outlets throughout the country.
